John 13:1-20

Alice Coleman

MEDITATION

“He Took a Towel”

by B. Shepherd

PRAYER FOR A TIME OF FOOT WASHING by A. Siddall

If only it were otherwise.

If only I could present my credentials, show my record of service,
get some kind of unlimited pass.

In every area of my life I am more used to proving how adequate I am,
presenting a polished image, gaining certain privileges.

But you, Lord, you bring me down to where you are kneeling,
and take hold of the feet I prefer to hide.

We are here together, near the ground,
and in this humble position I am touched by you
and made clean.

We are here together, near the ground,
and in this humble position I am touched by you
and made clean. Amen.

ANTHEM

“The One Who Bears My Shame”
