Palm Sunday

CALL TO WORSHIP by T. Shuman (adapted)

From Jerusalem, and from our homes:
We come raising our voices with joyful hope.
We wave palm branches in anticipation of the one who will save us.
We lay our love before him, to cushion his walk.
From our sofas, our kitchen tables, our desks:
We come to prepare for the holiest of weeks.
As Jesus leads us through this week of betrayal, suffering and death;
We will walk with him; for he is the life we long for
and the Word who sustains us,
Setting aside all power, glory, and might, he comes:
Hosanna! Hosanna in the highest heaven!

CLOSING PRAYER by C. Lawrie

And now we lay down the palm branches.
And with them we lay down our belief that there is another way for you to be God.
As the last echo of the final hosanna fades,
so does our hope that this journey can end in any other way.
The week stretches ahead glory-less and pain-full.
Whether we walk with all faith or with none, we look toward the cross, knowing it is both the most human and most divine of all journeys.
Lord Jesus, with you may we travel the road with courage, with love, and with the uneasy peace that is the gift of faith
into this holiest of weeks. Amen.
